APPLICATION FOR PREFIX

(Effective 01.07.06)

The Association has the right to approve or reject absolutely any prefix it deems unacceptable and no prefix shall be used until written confirmation has been received from the Association. The prefix will form part of the horses name and therefore must be of an acceptable size to allow for the maximum of thirty (30) characters (this includes the prefix and all spaces) allowed for a registered name.

To be eligible to apply for a Prefix the applicant must be a financial member of the Standardbred Pleasure & Performance Horse Association of Western Australia Inc.

The prefix cannot be the name of or sound like the name of an already registered horse, be the name of or sound like the name of an already registered prefix or be offensive or rude.
